

InfoEXPRESS Extra

Bora Laskin Law Library

library.law.utoronto.ca

Volume 2017, June Issue

New Content!

American Civil Liberties Union papers, 1912-1990 (Making of Modern Law)

“This important collection of papers spans most of the twentieth century. Law and humanities libraries serving scholars and students in twentieth-century American social history and politics will find this archive of special interest because of its focus on civil rights, civil liberties, race, gender, and issues relating to the U.S. Supreme Court. The relevance of the collection to today’s curriculum and to current debates at both national and local levels indicates broad appeal.”

Database of Legal Dictionaries from HeinOnline

This impressive collection of legal dictionaries is composed of nearly 300 titles from various countries, on multiple topics. Browse content by title or country. Key titles include the Compendius Dictionary of the English Language, several Concise Law Dictionaries, and more.

Archives Unbound

Archives Unbound presents topically-focused digital collections of historical documents that support the research and study needs of scholars and students at the college and university level. Collections in Archives Unbound cover a broad range of topics from the Middle Ages forward—from Witchcraft to World War II to twentieth-century political history. Collections are chosen for Archives Unbound based on requests from scholars, archivists, and students.

- American Indian Movement and Native American Radicalism
- Conditions & Politics in Occupied Western Europe, 1940-1945
- Correspondence from German Concentration Camps and Prisons
- Feminism in Cuba: Nineteenth through Twentieth Century Archival
- Final Accountability Rosters of Japanese-American Relocation Centers, 1944-1946

New Books in the Library

InfoEXPRESS Extra

Bora Laskin Law Library

library.law.utoronto.ca

Volume 2017, June Issue

Try it for Free!

Oxford Scholarly Authorities on International Law

You will have full access to all titles included within Oxford Scholarly Authorities on International Law including Oppenheim's International Law, Rosalyn Higgins' Problems and Process, Commentaries on UN Charter edited by Bruno Simma, Statute of the ICJ edited by Andreas Zimmermann, and Torture Convention by Manfred Nowak. In addition, you will have access to the Oxford Law Citator. The Citator offers easy access linking to related content available in all new Oxford online legal services.

To begin using the Oxford Scholarly Authorities on International Law, visit <http://opil.oup.com/home/osail>. Please note that trial period ends on July 17, 2017

Current Awareness

Recent Tables of Contents for Canadian Law Journals (May 2017)

The Advocate's Quarterly
Canadian Business Law Journal
Canadian Journal of Criminology and Criminal Justice
Canadian Public Administration
Estates Trusts & Pensions
University of British Columbia Law Review

A Webinar:

Canadian Legislative Pulse is an excellent one-of-a-kind resource that helps researchers monitor Canadian bills and regulations. If you're interested in joining the librarians for a training webinar to be held on June 27th at 9:30 am, please send an e-mail to law.infoexpress@utoronto.ca

Syllabus Service

Is your Fall 2017-2018 Syllabus copyright compliant? We would be happy to check!

In support of the UofT's ongoing commitment to copyright compliance, we ask that you consider submitting your fall course reading list to law.infoexpress@utoronto.ca before the end of the summer.

Please also see the university's Fair Dealing Guidelines.

On-Demand Research Assistants

We are pleased to let you know that we have highly competent Research Assistants on an "On Demand", per-project basis this summer!

If you are in need of short-term research assistance, please send an e-mail request to law.infoexpress@utoronto.ca. Please note that the RAs are paid out of the faculty member's research funds

InfoEXPRESS Extra is a monthly newsletter created to provide our Faculty with information about library news & services, resources, new acquisitions and more. If you have any questions, comments, or requests, please send them to law.infoexpress@utoronto.ca.