Faculty Research Assistants

If you are in need of short-term research assistance, please consider using our Faculty-Library Research Assistant service, now in its third year of operation. Currently there are three highly competent law student RAs on our roster. They are super-organized, detail-oriented, and ready to work. Please note that the RAs assistants are paid out of the faculty member's research funds.

For further information, please send an e-mail to InfoEXPRESS.

Research Guide Spotlight

John Bolan has created a new research guide: Immigration and Refugee Law Research, in support of our law students' recent effort in the national Research-a-Thon to build a case against Donald Trump's executive order on immigration and refugees.

Legislative Corner

Alexia Loumankis has updated our Current Canadian Legislation table.

Up-to-date statutes, regulations, parliamentary and related materials for each Canadian jurisdiction may be accessed through this chart.
