Faculty in the News

Would you like to see if you have been cited in the news media? If so, please e-mail InfoEXPRESS. We will search Factiva and Canadian Newsstream for the period May 1, 2018 to present, and send you the results.

Research Session

Librarian Jeffery Newman, UTL's resident citation management expert will be holding a research session for Zotero, and Juris-M, an excellent new bibliographic tool that specifically supports legal citation styles and materials. The session is open to Research Assistants, graduate students, and Faculty members on Thursday, May 9, 2019 in Room J125.

2019 Summer RA Instructional Program

Once again, the Bora Laskin Law Library will offer Research Assistants working for Law Faculty members during the summer a series of instructional legal sessions on a variety of areas including working with books, journals, researching cases, legislation, international law, and historical databases. Expert trainers from Westlaw, Lexis, JustisOne and Blue J Legal will teach students how to get the most out of their products. The program will kick off on May 7, 2019. Please encourage your research assistants to attend. Detailed information to follow via the Faculty Listserv.
