Digital Services Dispatch

LexisNexis Canada has cancelled their AI Assistant roll-out for the Fall 2024 term! Keep reading to learn more about September's HeinOnline trial, upcoming database training, and our recently renewed eResources.

Lexis+ AI roll-out postponed for law school student users

On September 4, LexisNexis postponed their plan to introduce their AI Assistive tool to students during the Fall 2024 term. They will advise of a new student access plan by January 2025. View LexisNexis' September 4 email communication.

Faculty users will continue to have access to the AI Assistant during this time. LexisNexis is offering Faculty training sessions on Sept 10 and 12 (Register on the Lexis Law Schools page). If you have any questions or would like to arrange a session with our law school's Lexis trainer, please email Alexandra Kwan.

HeinOnline trial starting September 9

For three weeks starting September 9, you can participate in our university-wide trial of HeinOnline's newest databases: UK Parliamentary & Government Publications \(Public Information Online\), and English, Irish and American Nominative Reports.

No need for a special login, simply visit the HeinOnline homepage and pick from the list of databases. If you try it, please email Alexandra Kwan.

Fall 2024 research database training sessions

This Fall, our library is hosting training sessions with expert database trainers from LexisNexis, Thomson Reuters, and vLex. Students, faculty, and staff are all welcome. Encourage your students to attend and boost their research skills!

Dispute Settlement Commentary on WorldTradeLaw.net

WorldTradeLaw.net's Dispute Settlement Commentary (DSC) Service offers timely summaries and analyses of WTO Panel and Appellate Body Reports and WTO Arbitrations, as well as dispute settlement tables and statistics. Continuously updated, it helps you keep track of new decisions and easily search WTO case law back to 1995. Check out WorldTradeLaw.net's DSC Service!

The screenshot shows the WorldTradeLaw.net website interface. At the top, there is a green navigation bar with the site name and several menu items: "Quick Links:", "WTO CASES & LEGAL TEXTS", "DSC FEATURES", "HELP BLOG", and "FREE RESOURCE LIBRARY". Below this is a section titled "All WTO Panel/AB Reports and Arbitrations" with a list of instructions for using the table. The table itself has columns for Dispute Name, Decision, DS Number, Type, Agreements, Circulation, Adoption Date, and Dispute Settlement Commentary. It lists five entries related to the U.S. - Tyres and Brazil - Tyres cases. A "Total Records: 5" row is at the bottom of the table. The footer contains copyright information and links for "About", "Contact Us", "Privacy Policy", "Terms & Conditions", and "Subscriptions".
