As of February 7, 2022, the Bora Laskin Law Library will resume regular operating hours:

Mo to Th: 9:00am to 11:00pm
Fr: 9:00 am to 8:00pm
Sa & Su: 10:00 am to 8:00pm

Closed on February 21, 2022 (Family Day)

Please refer to our hours page for updated information for the Winter 2022 semester.

WHAT’S NEW

NEW E-RESOURCES
Faculti.net
Research Source: Literary Studies

LIBRARY SUBSCRIPTIONS
Databases | EBooks

SERVICES
UTL’s Digital Scholarship Services (DSS)

CURRENT AWARENESS
TOCs for new Canadian Law Journals
New books acquired
New E-Resources from UTL

Faculti.net includes audio and video recordings of experts providing professional and research insights from their respective fields. It is a media library of news, analysis, facts, and figures and includes insights from The United Nations, the British Parliament, the Bank of England, the Federal Reserve, Harvard University, Stanford University, MIT, University of Oxford, and the University of Cambridge, and other research institutions.

Of interest to scholars in Medicine, Law, Education, Business and Management, Science, Social Science, Art, and the Humanities.

Research Source: Literary Studies collection provides scholars of British and American literature with access to a breadth of primary resources to support research. The collection includes literary manuscripts, rare printed works, and personal papers of a range of leading literary figures. Key documents in the collection include the manuscripts of Henry David Thoreau, papers and manuscripts from Gaskell and the Brontës, and early editions of Middlemarch.

Of interest to scholars in British literature, American literature, bibliography and print history.

Legal Databases

This list includes links to our comprehensive collection of legal database subscriptions purchased by the library, as well as to various free legal research sites.

- Treatises and loose-leaf services available on Westlaw Edge Canada and Lexis Advance Quicklaw
- Law-related loose-leaf titles available on Proview
- Online availability of textbooks from the first year and upper year Course Reading Lists

DSS at UTL

Digital Scholarship Services (DSS) at University of Toronto Libraries supports teaching and research using digital methods and tools. Some services include Digital Publishing, Text & Data Mining, Digital Collections & Exhibits, Research Data Management, and more. DSS is available to all U of T Faculty, Staff and Students.

If you have any questions, comments, or requests, please send them to law.infoexpress@utoronto.ca
The Tables of Contents for the most recent issues of Canadian Law Journals and Reviews received at the Bora Laskin Law Library, have been compiled here December, 2021 & January 2022. If you’d like to see any of the articles in full text, please contact law.infoexpress@utoronto.ca.

New Books in the Library

Full list

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Mariana Prado &amp; Michael Trebilcock</td>
<td>Janet Walker et al (eds)</td>
<td>Don Stuart</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Alice Woolley et al (eds)</td>
<td>Hein de Haas et al</td>
<td>Matthew Barry Johnson</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

If you have any questions, comments, or requests, please send them to law.infoexpress@utoronto.ca