InfoEXPRESS

InfoEXPRESS is the Bora Laskin Law Library's premium research and resource delivery service, for the exclusive use of the faculty members, doctoral candidates, distinguished visiting scholars and staff at this Law School.

InfoEXPRESS obtains books, articles, cases, legislation, and other materials from the Law Library, other campus libraries, via inter-library loan from other universities in Ontario, Canada, the United States and around the world, and delivers the requested material directly to its users.

Please forward requests to: law.infoexpress@utoronto.ca

On-Demand RAs

A pool of law student research assistants is available to assist faculty with short-term research projects throughout the academic year. Please email Reference and Research Librarian Alexia Loumankis, for further information.

Instructional Support

The Bora Laskin Law Library provides customized legal research training for 1L Small Group courses, Faculty of Law Programs, Clinics and Journal Editors.

The tailored sessions teach students how to formulate sound research strategies and highlight the most relevant resources/research tools needed to successfully complete research assignments.

Customized legal research sessions for upper-year courses, LLMS, and SJD candidates are available upon request.

Please e-mail John Bolan, Head of Instructional Services to request a legal research session.
