

A Sea Change in Land Rights Law: The Extension of Native Title to Australia's Offshore Areas

Gary D. Meyers

Malcolm O'Dell

Guy Wright

and

Simone C. Muller

1996

Native Title Research Unit

Australian Institute of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Studies

Canberra, Australia

Published by the Native Title Research Unit
Australian Institute of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Studies
GPO Box 553
Canberra ACT 2601

Sales inquiries: (06) 246 1191

NATIONAL LIBRARY OF AUSTRALIA CATALOGUING-IN-PUBLICATION DATA

A sea change in land rights law: the extension of native title to Australia's offshore areas.

Includes index.

ISBN 0 85575 298 X

1. Aborigines, Australian - Fishing - Law and legislation.
2. Torres Strait Islanders - Fishing - Law and legislation.
3. Fishery law and legislation - Australia. I. Meyers, Gary D. II. Australian Institute of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Studies. Native Title Research Unit.

343.9407692

Cover design by Denis French,
Aboriginal Studies Press

Printed by Goanna Print, Canberra

Note on copyright:

Copyright of this monograph remains with the Commonwealth of Australia.
This edition is published with permission of the National Native Title Tribunal.
However, the views expressed are not necessarily those of the Tribunal.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Executive Summary	iii
Introduction	1
 PART I - THE FACTUAL BACKGROUND	 3
Indigenous Association with the Sea	3
The Archaeological Record	3
Religious Association	5
Trading Networks	7
Traditional Land Tenure	8
Examples of Traditional use of the Sea	9
Umpila	10
Murray Island (Mer)	12
Yolngu	14
Bardi	15
Summary	17
Non-Indigenous Fishing: Economics and Management	19
 PART II - THE LEGAL QUESTIONS	 23
The Threshold Question	23
The Mabo Decision	23
Mason v Tritton	24
Sutton v Derschaw	26
Overseas Jurisdictions	27
New Zealand	28
Canada	29
The Native Title Act 1993	30
Summary	30
Recognition of Native Title in Australia's Offshore Areas	33
Australia's Offshore Areas	33
The Extension of the Common Law into Offshore Areas	34
The Accrual of Sovereignty in Offshore Areas	36
The Effect of Sovereignty in Offshore Areas	40
The Time Frame for 'Proof' of Indigenous Sea Rights	42

'Constitutional' Legislation Extinguishing Indigenous Sea Rights?	43
The Effect of the Native Title Act on Legislation Extinguishing Native Title	49
Common Law Recognition of Native Title in Australia's Coastal Zones	50
Proof of Indigenous Sea Rights	53
Establishing the Existence of Indigenous Sea Rights	53
The Burden of Proving Extinguishment	56
Summary	60
The Characterisation of Indigenous Sea Rights	61
A Right 'Connected' with Land	61
'At Large' Indigenous Sea Rights	63
Summary	65
The Scope of Indigenous Sea Rights	67
The Method of Exercising Fishing Rights	67
Mobility and Transfer of Fishing Rights	69
The Extent of a Right to Fish - For Commercial Purposes?	71
Summary	73
Extinguishment and Regulation of Indigenous Sea Rights	75
The 'Extinguishment Principle'	75
Legislation Containing a General Prohibition on Fishing	76
Legislation Containing Partial Exemptions or Creating Special Regimes for Indigenous People	77
Legislation Granting Fishing Rights to Third Persons	78
Regulation of Indigenous Fishing Rights	79
Regulation and the Native Title Act	80
Summary	81
A Fiduciary Relationship	83
The Creation of a Fiduciary Obligation to the Holders of Indigenous Sea Rights	83
The Content of a Fiduciary Obligation	85
Summary	87
Conclusion	89
Bibliography
Index
About the Authors	